outcome of any matter considered by the stockholders of the Company. As a result of the actions of the Company and Mr. Diller described herein, and in order to protect its legitimate interests in the Company, Liberty has determined to obtain control of the Company in the manner described herein. Therefore, as a result of the IAC Stockholder Consent, all of the directors on IAC's board of directors, other than the Common Stock Directors, are designees of Liberty. On January 29, 2008, the Company issued a press release in which the Company stated that Liberty does not control the Company, Mr. Diller continues to be the Chairman and CEO of the Company, and the Board of Directors of the Company elected at the last annual meeting of stockholders continues to manage the affairs of the Company.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms and provisions of the Stockholders Agreement and the Governance Agreement remain in full force and effect as previously described in the Liberty Schedule 13D, including, without limitation, restrictions on transfer, and Mr. Diller's and Liberty's "tag-along" rights and rights upon transfers of Class B Common Stock.

Liberty is currently considering all of its options with respect to the Company and the shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock controlled by it, but, other than as described in this Amendment, Liberty has not reached any definite conclusions concerning its course of action. Any decision Liberty makes regarding the Company and the shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock may be impacted by, among other things, the outcome of the litigations described in this Amendment or any other litigation, claim, event or circumstance that may arise as a result of agreements and arrangements among Liberty, the Company, Mr. Diller and the BDTV Entities, as a result of the Spin-Off Proposals or otherwise. In reaching any conclusion as to its future course of action, Liberty will also take into consideration various factors, including, but not limited to, the Company's business and prospects, other developments concerning the Company, other business opportunities available to Liberty, developments with respect to the business of Liberty, general economic conditions and monetary and stock market conditions, including, but not limited to, the market price of the Common Stock.

Other than as provided herein, and except as contained in the agreements previously filed as exhibits to the Liberty Schedule 13D or as has been publicly announced by the Company or Liberty, Liberty does not have and, to the best of Liberty's knowledge, none of its directors or officers have, any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions set forth in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4.
