QVC Announces Proposed Senior Secured Notes Offering

Englewood, Colo, March 17 — QVC, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Liberty Media Corporation (NASDAQ: LCAPA, LCAPB, LINTA, LINTB, LSTZA, LSTZB), today announced its intention to offer $250 million in aggregate principal amount of senior secured notes due April 15, 2017 and $250 million in aggregate principal amount of senior secured notes due October 15, 2020 (collectively, the “Notes”). The Notes will be senior secured obligations of QVC and will be secured by a first-priority lien on the capital stock of QVC and the other assets securing QVC’s senior secured credit facilities and existing 7.50% Senior Secured Notes due 2019. The net proceeds from the offering will be used to acquire and retire existing senior secured credit facility indebtedness.

QVC will make the offering pursuant to an exemption under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The initial purchasers will offer the Notes only to Qualified Institutional Buyers as permitted under Rule 144A of the Securities Act, or outside the United States to certain persons in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be sold in the United States absent registration or an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

This press release is for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy the offered Notes, nor shall there be any sales of Notes in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.
